Agricultural Water Center
Welcome to our quarterly newsletter

- Slack! - We started using Slack for general group communications and file sharing. We are still using the email and calendar invites to schedule meetings.
- Please join me in welcoming Ms. Amelia Oxarart our new social media manager. She will be managing our Twitter and LinkedIn accounts. If you are on those platforms please follow/friend.
  https://twitter.com/AgWaterCenter
  https://www.linkedin.com/company/79493381/admin/
- We would like to host a recurring onboarding meeting for all the undergraduate students, graduate students and postdocs, etc. that will be joining the project along these 5 years. Please send them this link: https://forms.gle/eaj9SJ4VBHsyfoCQ9. We would also like to highlight the students and postdocs on the project website, please send us their information.
- Please keep sending lael any presentations, publications, news, activities done as part of the project.
- We are building a GIS map with all the project fields sites. If you are doing any field activities, please fill this form https://forms.gle/ZFh7knHHYMslFh9N7 or contact lael. This map will be updated over time.
- Different objective/sub-objective teams have been meeting. lael has been sharing the notes on Slack whenever possible/relevant. If your team has been meeting and you would like to share some notes, please send them along.
- NIFA PD meeting is on April 18th-20th in Kansas City, MO and online. There is still time to register for the online participation: https://commerce.cashnet.com/ksunifa
  https://ksu.zoom.us/meeting/register/tJ0pcuysqz8iGtfeoboqMaVITf1ENGmF7Sf
- We are still recruiting for our project manager
  https://recruit.ucdavis.edu/JPF04595

Javier Peralta, a graduate student in Dr. Rosemary Knight's group at Stanford University performing geophysical measurements at an almond orchard near Modesto, CA.
Photo by Hanni Haynes

How to cite the project support on publications:
This work was fully funded or partially funded by USDA NIFA (Award # 2021-68012-35914)